The Marines Pay the Price

Bloody Sunday

JESSICA SAVITCH

At the crack of dawn, 6:22 a.m., on October 23, a red Mercedes truck rumbled through a Lebanese army checkpoint near the U.S. Marine Battalion Landing Team headquarters at Beirut International Airport. It picked up speed, crashed a roll of barbed wire, sped between sentry bunkers and burst through a wrought iron gate into the Marine compound. The driver then triggered a cargo of more than two tons of TNT. All four stories of the structure slammed to earth, crushing most of the 300 occupants. Chunks of concrete and metal reinforcing rods sprayed in every direction. Marines bivouacked nearby marshaled construction equipment and hundreds of Lebanese workers, but before the day was over, it was clear they were not looking for survivors, only bodies. Less than two minutes after the attack on the Marines, a second truck bomb destroyed a French paratroop barracks two miles to the north. It took three weeks to count all the dead: for the French, 58 paratroopers; for the U.S., 218 Marines, 18 sailors, 3 soldiers.

REMEMBER . . .

"Samurai Math Teacher"

Your first pangs of senioritis

When Mrs. Thomas gave a spelling test with the words on the board

Kim Beauchamp painting her face for every football game

Doug and Wendy Whiner

Truck pulls in the parking lot

When Mr. Bryck came to class on time

Marlboro Mustangs shoelaces

The Mohawk craze of freshman year

All the developments being built

When the Middle States evaluators came and the teachers were nice for a week

Getting soaked during the fire drill in the middle of the basketball finals in Piscataway

Having lunch in the middle of a class

Signing out at 12:40 the day of the prom

When everyone came back from vacations with new noses

Being in love with Mr. Andl

Looking forward to senior year for three years and then hating it BWOCs

Going to Sleaze Gardens after the prom

Watching MTV all night

Having to tell a couple to move away from your locker

Making up gym

Getting class rings

When the football players ate, slept, and showered in their varsity jackets

WPLJ-the way it used to be

Reverend Greene

Exercising your right as a senior to cut the lunch line

The French Club has been involved in many activities this year. In November we had our annual French Club Dinner in our school cafeteria. There was plenty of delicious French cuisine, and everyone had a great time. We also took a trip to La Fromagerie, a fantastic French restaurant. The French Club this year was a lot of fun and "très chic"!

The Drama Club has had a very busy year. First we sponsored the school production of Arsenic and Old Lace. We were also involved in presenting the spring musical, Anything Goes. Both shows took a lot of hard work, but they were great fun and big successes! Besides performing, the Drama Club has gone on several trips, including a night in New York City to see the Broadway musical A Chorus Line in December. All of the talented members of our club have helped to make this a terrific year!

After playing a good season the Mustangs went into the Manalapan game with high hopes. Through many years and many attempts the team failed to beat the Braves but their optimism paid off. After a long game the Mustangs walked off the field with a final score of 35-20, and the winner of the Doc Berman Memorial Award.

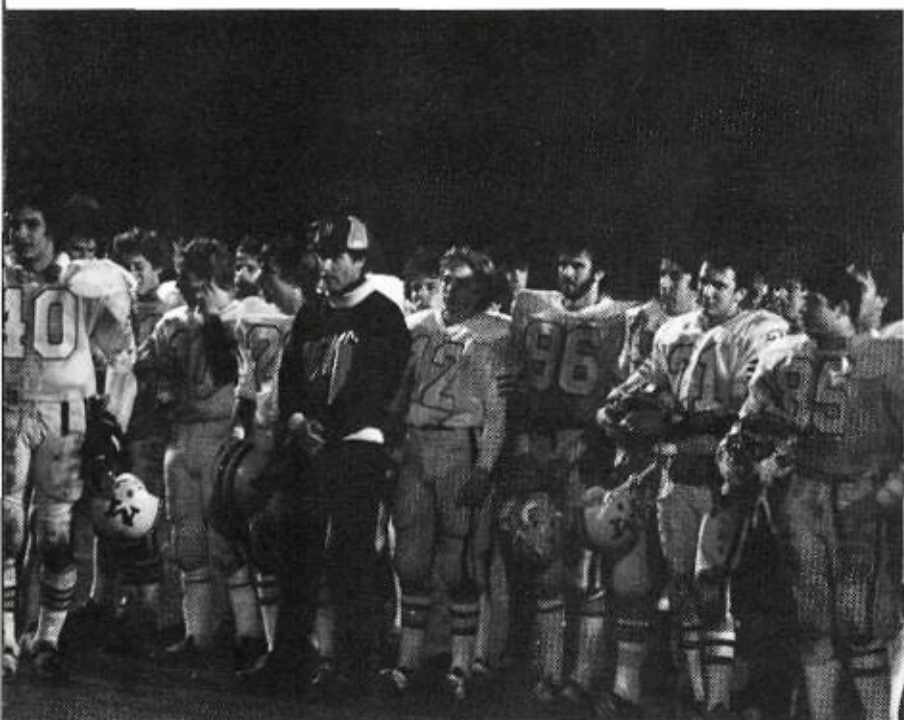

Captains Billy Von Riegen, Chris Henwood, Alphonse Melchionna along with Coach Davis and the rest of the MHS football team led Marlboro to a final record of 4-5. Lance Weidman was the leading scorer with over 500 yards rushing.

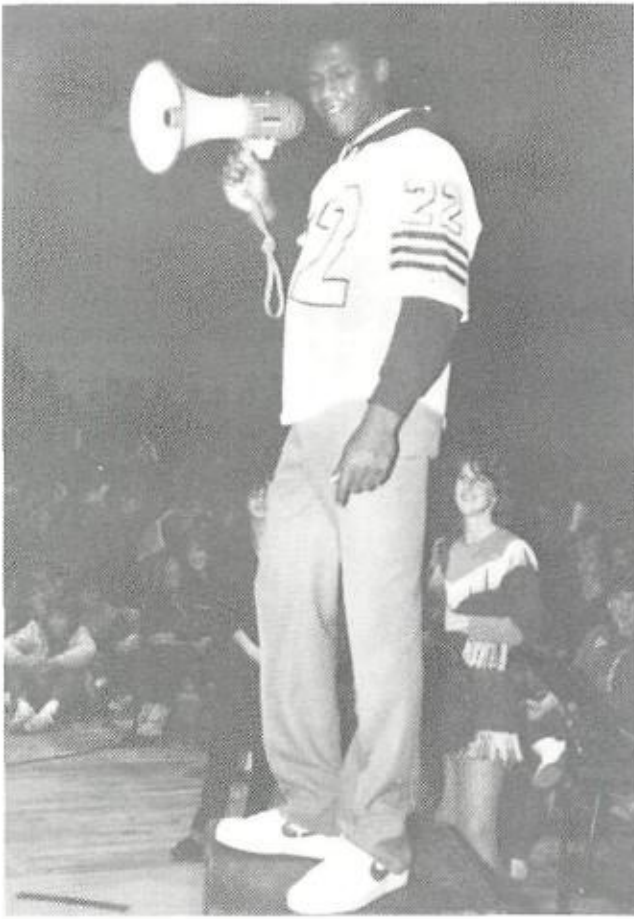

The many seniors will be missed but the Mustangs will try to keep up the good work. CONGRATULATIONS GUYS FOR A SUCCESSFUL SEASON!!!!
